

VENUES:

"Pogby is considering future adaptations that would allow us to push specific spatial inventory using discounts, availability adjustments, and the merit of our own hold/lead acceptance rates, which will put us in a position, simply put, to book more events in at New World Stages."

- Phillip Wilson
Event Coordinator, New World Stages

---

"Finally I can point planners to one place that contains all the information they need to make a decision."

-Ceri Dawson
Director of Special Events, Heartland Brewery

---

"Thank YOU so much Josh! It is such a pleasure working with you and Liz and the whole team. Pogby is such a terrific venture. To all the venues out there, we highly recommend these guys. I can't imagine a team of more skilled, attentive, imaginative players. Here's to creating more and better events!"

- Jennifer Jones
Events Manager, New World Stages

PLANNERS:

"I need the ability to narrow down my options, compare them, and find hidden gems (venues) to present to clients."

- Ken Schmalz
Managing Partner, S&A Event Services

"Pogby is the solution that planners in the metropolitan area need. Instead of wasting valuable time and resources on often unresponsive phone calls and emails, it's one stop venue search, availability and booking. Pogby is a must for any planner in the know."

- Amira Gertz
Director of Private Event Sales, City Hall (Tribeca)

---

"What a brilliant idea to have all the information online and book as you would an airline ticket! Your seminar was the most valuable to me because of the potential time savings your site will provide for future projects. So much time is wasted on phone messages and back and forth emails."

- May Lau
Special Events Director, New York City

---

"I think Pogby is such a great idea and will definitely launch the Events World into the Technology age."

- Lauren Farrugio
Events Coordinator, The Boston Consulting Group

"Being able to immediately know if a space was available would give me an undeniable advantage. I've spent hours searching for just the right venue for my client's needs. That time would have been better spent moving forward with completing a proposal, or creating the event memo."

- Mark Dean
Senior Program Director, Omnicom/Health Science Communications
